Scripture Insights
At the end of Advent and Christmas Time, the Scriptures take us from the humble, local event of the Messiah’s birth to a celebration of the universal effects of God’s breaking through into human history. Pilgrimages, processions, journeys, and exotic visitors all converge in the glorious light of the Lord, who has come to dwell in time for all peoples.

… The details of the Magi’s visit intrigue us. The visitors’ names and occupations, the symbolism of the gifts, and the evil intentions of Herod lend drama and mystery to the story. But we need to focus on the Gospel as an epiphany, a manifestation of God’s intervention in the world. These foreigners are a sign of the far-reaching effect of the birth of the Son of God. All peoples of good will find their way to the Lord.

Becoming the Domestic Church by Daniel S. Mulhall
As we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family, we reflect on the importance of family in our own lives and in the life of the Church. Pope Francis does just this in his papal exhortation The Joy of Love (Amoris Laetitia).

… Throughout The Joy of Love, the Holy Father offers insights into what makes the family the domestic church. First, it is the place “where children are brought up in the faith (16),” where children first hear from their parents the story of God’s wondrous love. Because it is the parents who share the mysteries of the faith, children naturally believe them. It is in the family, the Pope notes, where children learn “the joy of work, fraternal love, generous -- even repeated -- forgiveness, and above all divine worship in prayer (86).”

… “When a family is welcoming and reaches out to others, especially the poor and the neglected,” the Holy Father writes, “it is a symbol, witness and participant in the Church’s motherhood (325).”

… The Pope advises us to reflect on the interplay between the family and the Church. Dr. David Thomas has identified ten simple things that families do that proclaim to the world that they are indeed domestic churches:
1. Speak with each other regularly and with respect.
2. Eat together whenever possible.
3. Take a conscious interest in what each person does and likes to do -- we show that we care about each other.
4. Stay closely connected with our extended families, so that we can learn our family stories and lore.
5. Respect and support all family members throughout their lives.
6. Help each other whenever help is needed, but allow people to do things on their own when help isn’t needed.
7. Celebrate holidays and major family events throughout our lives.

GIVE YOURSELF A GIFT IN THE NEW YEAR
Please consider joining the Scripture study in January and February. During the coldest days of the year we can snuggle up in the evening and delve into “The Tragic and Triumphant Cross.” This study will take place from January 17 - February 21 (6 weeks). It is from the Threshold Bible Study series which sets out to help individuals and groups “open the door” to the heart of Scripture. Registration will take place January 7/8 and 14/15. Call the parish office if you have any questions.

A VERY SHORT CHRISTMAS TIME
Do you remember how it always seems as though we are celebrating Christmas for such a long time? We keep singing songs about Christmas when all the Christmas music has been put away until next year by the stores and most stations. This year the Christmas season is the shortest it can be – just three Sundays: Christmas, Mary, Mother of God (today) and Epiphany (January 8). The other feasts have been moved to weekday celebrations: The Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph will be Friday, December 30, and Baptism of the Lord, which ends Christmas Time, will be celebrated Monday, January 9. (Next year, with Christmas on Monday, we will be back to a longer Christmas season.)

PASTA COOK-OFF PLANNING MEETING
Plans are under way for the 15th ANNUAL PASTA COOK-OFF AND WINE TASTING fundraiser which benefits the American Heart Association! Join us in these early preparation stages on WED, JAN 18, 6:30pm to discuss the possibilities! Call Paula in the parish office with questions, or to attend the meeting! (Event date: SUN, FEB 26, 2017).
In Jesus’ time, just as He accepts all the pain we carry, He shares in our joy, too.

The story of the Holy Innocents shocks us, and that’s probably a good thing. How could Herod have committed such a monstrous crime? But maybe the better question is Where do I see similar things today? In Jesus’ time, just as today, children were among the most vulnerable and abused people in the world. They are considered almost as disposable today as they were back then.

How disposable are they? We have only to think of the scourge of abortion to get a glimpse. And of those children who are born, millions are trapped in grinding poverty, denied their basic rights to food and shelter and education.

Many are forced into hard labor or, worse, conscripted into rebel armies. Consider also the countless little ones who are homeless, trafficked, or abused. The list is heartbreaking.

But it’s Christmastime! We’re supposed to be celebrating Jesus’ birth, not lamenting the death of children. Or are we? Today’s feast (Holy Innocents 12/28/16) reminds us that the baby in the manger lived his whole life under the shadow of violence.

Where do I see similar things today in the world and in our own hearts.

When our prayers for our children don’t seem to be answered and our hearts are broken, Jesus knows.

When injustice robs the poor of their homes, Jesus knows.

When the needy are neglected, Jesus knows.

When the innocent are abused, Jesus knows.

When defenseless lives are taken without remorse, Jesus knows.

When the innocent are abused, Jesus knows.

When the needy are neglected, Jesus knows.

When our life story is wounded by tragedy, sickness, or death, Jesus knows.

Jesus knows all that we suffer. He is always close to us, to every person in the world. They are considered almost as disposable today as they were back then.

The second parent/child preparation meeting is Sunday, January 22 in Reagan Hall (opt #2 is Wed, Jan 25, at 6:30pm in Holy Family Hall). Please make every effort to attend one of these Preparation meetings, but call Brenda Antenucci in the parish office if this is impossible. Your child is required to be at this meeting with you!! If you have not turned in reconciliation registration forms or baptismal certificates, please bring them to the session. Extra forms will be provided at the meetings or you can download them from our website. bsppc.org.
JANUARY: POVERTY AWARENESS MONTH

Poverty is the state of being extremely poor. Poverty is about not having enough money to meet basic needs, including food, clothing and shelter. However, poverty is more -- much more -- than not having enough money. It is coping with chronic hunger. It is being sick and not being able to see a doctor. It is not knowing how to read or not having a job. Poverty has many faces, and changes all the time. Here are some ways you can help:

- Visit updated Dollar Days Wish List at dollardays.com/ccdoy/wishlist.html to purchase products clients need most.
- Pray for those who face poverty every day.
- Contact a Catholic Charities Agency near you and volunteer your time to help.
- Donate gently used coats, hats, scarves, gloves and blankets to Catholic Charities.

OHIOANS TO STOP EXECUTIONS

The first execution in nearly three years is scheduled JAN 12, 2017. Ronald Phillips is scheduled to be executed for the murder of Sheila Marie Evans. By any measure this was a terrible crime for which he must be held accountable...we can do that without killing him. Please call Gov. John Kasich 614-466-3555 to urge him to commute Ronald Phillip’s sentence to death by incarceration, NOT execution -- by changing his sentence to ‘Life in prison with no possibility of parole.’ Or send a note to Gov. John Kasich, Riffe Center, 30th Floor, 77 High Street, Columbus, OH 43215-6117.
Please make the following points:
- Ronald Phillips has already served 24 years on Ohio’s death row.
- His co-defendant received a lesser sentence and has died in prison.
- A true life without parole sentence was not available until three years after this crime occurred. It is possible that a jury would have recommended that sentence if available.
- Please also note that executions should not be allowed to resume in Ohio until the recommendations of the Supreme Court Task Force on the Administration of Ohio’s Death Penalty has been implemented. These 56 recommendations are intended to make Ohio’s death penalty more fair and accurate.
